LOG BOOK APPLICATION Endurance Horse

Complete this application to progress your horse from Novice to Endurance Status. There is a separate application for a Novice Log Book. Complete the following steps to successfully obtain an Endurance Log Book;

1. You will need to return your Novice Log Book with this application.
2. All applicants must complete Sections 1, 2,3 and 7.
3. If your Novice Log Book already contains a formal Veterinary ID (that is, it was completed when you applied for your Novice Log Book) then ignore Sections 4, 5 and 6.
4. The applicant must post all 3 pages of this application (appropriately completed) AND
5. Attach a copy of any Breed Registration documents (eg AHSA) if available and if not provided with the Novice Log Book application AND
6. IMPORTANT....when a Novice horse becomes Endurance it MUST have registration before it can compete in an endurance ride – please complete, attach and pay the ‘AERA Horse Registration’ form when sending the Endurance Logbook application in. (see forms section on website).
7. Attach a cheque or money order payable to the NSWERA Inc. for the applicable fees to the address shown above.

Please Note that effective from the 01/01/10 all horses progressing to Endurance Status must be micro-chipped. If your horse had a formal Veterinary ID completed at the Novice Application stage but was not micro chipped then have your Veterinarian insert a micro chip and have the Veterinarian record the microchip number where indicated in Section 4 and sign Section 6.
