LOG BOOK APPLICATION Novice Horse

Complete this application to apply for a Novice Horse Log Book only. A separate application form exists for an Endurance Horse Log Book. Complete the following steps to obtain your Novice Horse Log Book.

1. Fully complete Sections 1 to 7 of this form.
2. Please note that either;
 - the Legal Owner or the Applicant must be a current member of the NSWERA Inc. at the time of application.
 - the Legal Owner or the Applicant or a registered Veterinarian may complete Section 5.
3. The Applicant must mail the following to the NSWERA Inc. Secretariat at the address shown above;
 - the fully completed 3 pages of this Novice Horse Log Book Application.
 - a copy of any Breed Registration documents if available (eg AHSA).
 - a cheque, credit card details or a money order for the application fee.
 - Allow 14 days for processing and the return of the Log Book.

If you choose to have a Veterinarian Identify your horse (section 5) you MAY also choose to micro chip your horse simultaneously but this is NOT mandatory. From 01/01/10 all horses graduating to Endurance Horse status must be micro chipped. If you chose to micro chip your horse now, advise your Veterinarian to supply and insert an ISO compliant micro chip and ensure the Veterinarian records the micro chip number in Section 4. If anaesthetic is used when inserting the micro chip the horse cannot compete at an AERA affiliated event for 6 days following the date of insertion.
